My dear Mr Whitney
& Mr Manning,

We arrived at 5 Berkeley St. just as the clock struck half past six, in time to keep our engagement.

I am sending by post two sheets of the Plymouth and Duxbury
Map. You will see that I have turned down the edge of the Plymouth map where it joins the separate Duxbury sheet.

If you will cut off the upper part of the map at that line, it will exactly fit the other one, and you will have a complete map of your surroundings on a good large scale.

You will see that I have put a small red circle in the middle of the Plymouth sheet, at Half-way Pond. That circle marks the place where Deane Briggs' house is.

Mrs. Goodale and I look back on this day as one of the happiest we have ever passed. We only fear that you may have caught cold by exposure to the cold while you were waiting for with us at the gate.

Mr Goodale & Ours are in sending to you both, our best wishes and sincere regards.

Yours faithfully

J. J. Goodale
